

William John Holden

wjholden@gmail.com

(828) 919-9576

<http://wjholden.com>

Technical Training:

- Watauga High School, 2000-2004.
- North Carolina State University, 2004-2006.
- US Army Signal School, 2006.
- Balad, Iraq Information Management Officer (IMO) Training, 2007.
- Victory Base Complex, Iraq, Information Assurance Workshop, 2008.
- XVIII Abn Corps Warrior Leadership Course, 2009.
- Ft Bragg Network Managers Security Course, 2009.

Work Experience:

Information Technology Department, North Carolina State University, 2004-2006.
Performed a variety of entry-level skilled work on computers, networking equipment, audio/video equipment, and web design in a variety of locations, including the help desk, classrooms, computer labs, and dormitories.

44th Medical Brigade, 2007-2009.

Served in ranks Private-Sergeant in a variety of positions on Ft Bragg and Iraq, including Information Assurance Security Officer (IASO), Assistant IMO, IMO, Information Systems Specialist, and Help Desk Manager.

525th Battlefield Surveillance Brigade, 2009.

Fulfilled numerous operational requirements such as Information Systems Security Officer (ISSO), COMSEC Manager, Pagemaster, and Team Leader.

Special Operations Command Pacific, 2010.

Current operations management of all Special Operations communications platforms used in the Pacific Area of Responsibility (AOR).

Certifications: A+, Network+, Security+

Programming Languages: C, C#, Java, Perl, PHP, MySQL, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Linux Shell Scripting, Windows Command Scripting

Skills:

- SOHO Devices.
- Symantec Antivirus on both workgroups and domains.
- Windows Domain Administration.
- Linux and Sun Solaris Workstation Administration.
- Network Management.
- Web development (see <http://www.bragg.army.mil/LRS>)
- Supervision and training of teams of five or fewer personnel.
- Retina, LANguard, QTip, Nessus, nmap.
- Android Application Development.